

TRAIN TO BE AN ICF CERTIFIED COACH ONLINE

LeadershipWorks

Discover your inner leader and coach

Are you looking for a new career direction? An expanded leadership skill set? Deeper awareness of yourself and others? The ICF-approved Art and Practice of Coaching Program gives you the skills and tools to join the growing global community of professional coaches. You can use this certification in a number of ways, such as setting up your own coaching practice; offering internal coaching at work, or enhancing your management style and team engagement.

On completion of the training, you are eligible to join the International Coaching Federation (ICF), the leading professional body representing 37,000 coaches worldwide. The program provides 65 coach-specific training hours and the training is fully recognized as part of your ICF application to become an ACC credentialed coach.

The program will be of interest to experienced executives, HR professionals, trainers, consultants, educators, health professionals and aspiring coaches. The program will give you the 8 coaching core competencies laid down by the ICF and introduce you to the ICF Code of Ethics.

WHO IS THE PROGRAM DIRECTOR?

The Program Director is Linda McLoughlin, ICF Global Board Director and founder of LeadershipWorks. Linda was voted Top Coach and Mentor Coach by ICF Ireland and credentialed ICF Master Certified Coach (MCC) with extensive experience in leadership coaching with top executives worldwide and in training and mentoring other coaches.

Linda serves as Vice Chair of the Global ICF PC Board.
